A DISTINGUISHED LAWYER,
AN ABLE AND UPRIGHT JUDGE, AND A LOYAL ALUMNUS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Haymond Maxwell

Judge Haymond Maxwell

The men produced by a state are a more worthy object of pride than its material products. Judge Haymond Maxwell is one of the fine human products of this state. He is a native of West Virginia, and of the city of Clarksburg. He was educated in the public schools of his native city, and was graduated from the State University with the A. B. degree in 1900, and from the Law Department of the University with the LL.B. degree in 1901. West Virginia produced the man, and trained him in her own schools.

Haymond Maxwell entered the practice of law in Clarksburg immediately upon his graduation from the law department, and devoted himself exclusively to the practice until 1909, except for serving one term in the State Legislature, in the year 1905. During the first years of his practice he was associated with his father, the late Judge Edwin Maxwell.

In 1909 Governor William E. Glasscock appointed Mr. Maxwell Judge of the Criminal Court of Harrison County. Although he was an unusually young man for an important judicial position, his reputation for ability and integrity justified the appointment He was promoted to the circuit bench in 1912 by the votes of the people of Harrison and Lewis Counties, and was reelected for a second term in 1920 without opposition from either party. His judicial service was of the highest quality, and was characterized by courage, intelligence, and honesty. His court had the confidence of the people, at a time when the public attitude toward courts in general was very critical. In 1925, having completed nearly seventeen years of continuous judicial service, he resigned from the bench to resume the practice of law and at once entered into the activities of his profession as a partner in the firm of Steptoe, Maxwell, and Johnson in the city of Clarksburg.

Judge Maxwell's practical devotion to the University and to the cause of legal education is illustrated by the fact that he has given one week out of each year, for the past ten years, with two exceptions, to the task of presiding over the practice court in the University College of Law. He has lost none of his interests in the young men of his profession, and the benefits which they derive from their practice before him are a help and an inspiration to them. If each alumnus of the University would devote himself exclusively to the service of the University for one week out of each year, the resulting force would be incalculable.

The University community is proud of Judge Maxwell as a man and as an alumnus. He has been made an honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa, and of the Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity. A modest, cultured gentleman, learned in his chosen profession which he practices according to its finest traditions, he is typical of the kind of alumnus which every college or University hopes to give to the world.

In recognition of his service to the state and the University, and of the honor which his life and character reflect upon the University, this volume of the Monticola is dedicated to

HAYMOND MAXWELL

Foreword

We would have this volume be more than a mere chronicle of events. It cannot contain the spirit of West Virginia, for that spirit does not reside in tangible works. The most that we can hope is that these pages will in future years refresh the recollection of college days, and thereby rekindle in the hearts of all true Mountaineers—

Sophomore Class History

Humility is a characteristic which is to be commended in any Freshman Class. It is one which we, the class of '29, possessed to no small degree during our first year of college life, and it is one which we feel has been carried into our higher positions as Sophomores. However—we may say it blushingly—we feel, too, that we have forever left behind us that verdancy which was so noticeable during our Freshman year.

We realize our inferiority to the classes which have gone ahead. We praise them and honor them highly, but we realize, too, that with us lies the power of great accomplishments and achievements. We have a determination, a vivacity, and a keenness of purpose which, when put to the right use, cannot help but make us—to a small degree, at least—worthy of our Alma Mater.

With our college career half-spent, we look back with no regrets, and we look forward with the gladdest of hearts and the keenest of anticipations to what we know is to come.

Freshman Class History

On September twentieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, the largest class in the history of West Virginia University entered for the first time into academic work. Seven hundred strong we began our struggle with unknown quantities in a strange environment.

Our first move was to organize. As president we chose Mr. Oliver Rinehart and Miss Evelyn Campbell as secretary.

In the freshman-sophomore fight we won over the sophomores a decisive victory, outnumbering them and showing our superiority in loyalty and class spirit as well as in strength. Otherwise our year has been comparatively free from pugilistic encounters with the upperclassmen, we being aware of the value of the restrictions and rules that were placed over us, of their merit in assisting in our acclimation to the college atmosphere.

Our attainments have been the usual ones of freshmen classes. Our athletic teams have been both defeated and victorious in their encounters with representative teams from this and other states. We have taken part in dramatics, scholastic honors and other activities that are open to us. All in all we expect we are neither inferior nor greatly superior to other classes that have entered the University. Nevertheless we are aiming at greater achievements and accomplishments in our other years than the classes that have set such brilliant examples for us.

The Campus Beauties

The six preceding girls were selected from a group of eighteen co-eds as the most beautiful in the University. The order of their selection is the same as their position in the book. The other contestants were: Misses

SARAH JOLIFFE
CLARA DUNLEVEY
CATHERINE WATSON
CATHERINE PRESTON
MARGARET DILWORTH
MARTHA WOODS
MARGARET MAPLE
BETTY WARNER
MARY EVELYN WILSON
CATHERINE YOST
BARBARA DOWD
MARY MARGARET DALTON

These beauty candidates were chosen by the various sororities and other social organizations as their representatives in the contest. In the celebrity election that was staged by the Monticola the men of the school voted for their choice, those six receiving the highest number being conceded the winners.

Mountaineer Week

Because the State University bears the same relation to State high schools as the high schools bear to their municipal grade schools, and because there were several hundred seniors in high schools throughout the state wanting to know more about college as Commencement time drew near, nine senior men of the University carried the "message of West Virginia" to sixty-seven larger high schools of the state during a special week designated as "Mountaineer Week."

Sponsored by Roy Yoke, alumni secretary, George Jackson, senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, by the Student Council and the University authorities, "Mountaineer Week" proved to be one of the finest pieces of work along this line that the University has ever conceived. The Student Council and the University authorities shared the expenses.

Divided into three teams of three men each, the "teams" were able to visit several high schools each day and to appear at all af the state's larger secondary institutions. Liberal cooperation on the part of high school principals made such a tour possible. Special assemblies were called in the majority of cases, and the men spoke on three phases of University life: the social, the scholastic, and the extra-curricula.

Not one word was uttered intending to urge students to attend the West Virginia University. It was not a "boost" for the University. It was simply an attempt to describe the center of the state's educational system to those high school students who some day intend to enter a college or university. Special "classes" were held with the seniors after each assembly and particular questions regarding entrance credits, cost of year's work, etc., were answered by the U's ambassadors.

Not one high school principal has commented unfavorably regarding the innovation. A majority of the sixty-seven has already written Mr. Yoke and asked that "Mountaineer Week" be made a regular annual event. President Trotter has assured his cooperation and it is generally understood that nine seniors in 1928 will make the tour.

It is estimated that the nine men travelled, jointly, some 17,000 miles and that they addressed an aggregate audience of about 15,000 high school students! It is impossible to forsee the results of this campaign of education as regards the state University, but it can be for nothing but the best.

The men chosen represented every phase of collegiate activity, from Rhodes scholar to newspaper editor, from class president to wrestling manager.

PEOPLES

The Fire

Early on the morning of the fourteenth of April the residents of Morgantown and the students of the University were awakened by the clang of firebells and the glare of burning building. Practically the whole town rolled from its bed at four o'clock to witness one of the most destructive and disastrous conflagrations that have ever swept the city. It is undoubtedly one of the history-making epochs in the city of Morgantown and the University.

The blaze had its origin in an indefinite place and at undetermined time, but it is believed that it started in the basement of Orr's Department Store about three o'clock in the morning. In response to the first alarm the firemen were unable to locate the position of the trouble, thus allowing it to gain considerable headway before their efforts could hope to check it. The flame quickly spread to the Morgantown Hardware Company and to Comuntzis in spite of all that could be done. By five o'clock the Strand Building was smoking and soon after burst into a sheet of flame. Later on, as its walls gave way and crumbled across High Street another structure was crushed by the weight of its brick and stones. By noon there was half a block in complete ruin.

The loss, both to the owners and the citizens of Morgantown, let alone to the students, was considerable. Eight shops and a theatre were wiped completely out, with scarcely any saving of equipment or merchandise. Some fifty families who resided in the apartments above were left homeless. In all the loss totalled about two million dollars. With the going of this block went also fond recollections of the students of many a pleasant hour spent in idling. The disaster has completely changed the aspect of the down-town section but it can only be hoped that a finer and more progressive Morgantown will result as reconstruction takes place.

WEST VIRGINIA

Let's give a rah for West Virginia
And let us pledge to her anew,
Others may like black or crimson
But for us it's Gold and Blue.
Let all our troubles be forgotten;
Let college spirit rule,
We'll join and give our loyal efforts
For the good of our old school.

Chorus:

It's West Virginia, It's West Virginia,
The pride of every Mountaineer,
Come on, ye old grads, join with us young lads,
It's West Virginia now we cheer:
(Rah, rah)
Now is the time, boys, to make a big noise,
No matter what the people say,
For there is naught to fear, the gang's all here,
So hail to West Virginia, Hail.

—By Fred B. Deem.

FIGHT, MOUNTAINEERS!

Fight, fight, fight, fight, Mountaineers,
We're here to cheer for you.
Take that old ball down the field;
We're putting all our faith in you.
Play that team right off its feet;
You can't be beat, we know;
And when the game is through
We'll all cheer you,
West Virginia, West Virginia, Rah!

OLD GOLD AND BLUE

In the hills of West Virginia,
Where the Monongahela flows,
Stands our noble shrine of learning
Mid the laurel and the rose.
Through the four long years of college
We stand as firm and true,
Our hearts are ever loyal
To the dear Old Gold and Blue.

Chorus:
Three cheers for West Virginia,
Rah, rah, rah!
Hail to the Old Gold and Blue!
Cheer for our Alma Mater,
Rah, rah, rah!
Always to her standards be true!
Fight for her fame and prestige,
Rah, rah, rah!
Never to the foe say die!

How can we leave thee, Old Gold and Blue?
When our college days are over
And we're on life's weary way,
When our fondest dreams forsake us
And our hopes have gone astray,
Still a song of our Alma Mater
Will thrill us through and through
And bring back happy memories
Of the dear Old Gold and Blue.

UNIVERSITY DANCE—October 30, 1927

The opening dance of the social calendar was a decided success. Appropriate decorations shaded lights, clever programs and refreshments, and delightful music were all combined in this pleasant evening of dancing.

FIRST PAN-HELLENIC—November 12

The Armory was cleverly transformed into many Greek dens in which banners, pennants, and emblems of each fraternity represented in the Pan-Hellenic council were used. The hall was softly lighted by lanterns bearing the insignia of the various groups.

The music was furnished by Wesley Barry's Harmony Hounds of Hollywood, California. During the evening the Franklin Sisters gave several specialty dances.

FIRST CADET HOP—November 20, 1926

A profusion of American flags, red, white and blue streamers and festooning proved to be the attractive scene of the first Cadet Hop of the year. Carson Howard's West Virginians played for the dancers.

MU DELTA MU—November 25

Many out of town visitors and friends of the members of the Mu Delta Mu Fraternity were guests at a formal dance given in the chapter house Thanksgiving evening. Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played and the decorations were in keeping with the holiday spirit.

PI LAMBDA PHI—November 25

Members of the Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity entertained with a formal Thanksgiving dance. The chapter house was cleverly decorated with W. & J. and W. V. U. colors. Jake Gessner's Southerners played the program of dances and many out of town visitors were guests of the young men during the evening.

PI TAU DELTA—December 3

The Pi Tau Delta house was appropriately decorated with evergreens in keeping with the holiday spirit. Punch was served from a moss covered keg throughout the evening and Sanda Alba's orchestra played the program of dances.

CHI OMEGA FORMAL—December 3rd

An elaborate dome of old gold and blue overhead, soft lights issuing from fantastic lanterns shaded in cardinal and straw and bearing sorority emblems—enhanced further by a huge lighted panel bearing the name ot the sorority proved to be the scene of a delightful Chi Omega Winter Formal.

In a clever booth at one side of the hall Carson Howard's West Virginians played for the dancers, consisting of members and pledges of the sorority, out of town visitors, and guests from other organizations.

Novel programs of cardinal printed in gold were presented to the guests.

DELTA GAMMA PLEDGE PARTY—December 3, 1926

Conspicuous in the decorations of the chapter house was the ship, emblem of Delta Gamma. Clever programs were in keeping with this scheme and actives and pledges enjoyed a pleasant program of dances played by Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA—December 4th

Members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority entertained many guests at their Winter Formal in the University Armory which was decorated in old gold and blue and the sorority colors. Light and dark blue lanterns cast a soft glow over the assembled guests who danced to the music played by Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra.

PI BETA PHI—December 4th

The active members of the Alpha Chapter of the Pi Beta Phi sorority entertained with a Christmas party at their chapter house on University driveway. The house was effectively decorated with evergreen, wine colored chrysanthemums and pines. Overt Halloran and his orchestra played from 8:30 till 11:30 o'clock. At the close of the dance silver ash trays and match boxes were presented to the guests.

ALPHA XI DELTA PLEDGE PARTY—December 3

Pledges of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority entertained the actives with a pretty formal dance at the chapter house. The house was artistically decorated to represent the four seasons and during intermission lunch was served amid spring blossoms and greenery.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON-KAPPA SIGMA FORMAL—December 10, 1926

Decorated in the deep rich, purple and red colors of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and the refreshing scarlet, green and white of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, the armory was a scene of beauty. Overt Halloran and his Merry Mountaineers played during the evening and a light luncheon was served during the evening. At the close of the evening the guests were pleasantly surprised with gifts of dainty perfume atomizers.

SIGMA CHI FALL FORMAL—December 10, 1926

Mu Mu Chapter of Sigma Chi entertained with a very unusual formal dance. The rooms were artistically decorated in bold black and white and by a clever system of changing lights several different pictures were discovered on the walls. A four course dinner was served in the dining room which was delightfully transformed into a cabaret. Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played for the dancers throughout the evening.

SIGMA NU—December 11

A huge lighted replica of the Sigma Nu badge dominated the rooms decorated in the colors of the fraternity, black, white and gold for the annual prep party.

Carson Howard's West Virginians played for an evening of gay festivities.

At the conclusion of the dance the guests were presented with white roses.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON—December 11

The pledges of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity entertained the active members with a formal party at the chapter house on North Spruce street. The University colors, old gold and blue, predominated the decorations. The music was by Overt Halloran's orchestra.

PRESS CLUB FORMAL—December 11, 1926

Clever programs written in newspaper vernacular, harmonizing colors and beautiful music played by Overt Halloran and his Merry Mountaineers, combined to make the annual Press Club formal a decided success.

TORCH AND SERPENT—December 17

Lanterns shaded with red and black coffins cast a wierd glow over the Armory which was decorated in streamers of red and black, the colors of the organization. Gruesome emblems of the group added to the unusual scene and programs in keeping with the color scheme were presented to the guests.

The Prince of Wales orchestra of Pittsburgh played the program of dances.

PHI KAPPA SIGMA—January 7

Members of Phi Kappa Sigma entertained with an elaborate formal party. The colors of the fraternity, gold, black and white, were used effectively in the decoration of the spacious chapter house.

Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played the program of dances and during the intermission a light lunch was served.

SECOND CADET HOP—January 8

The Reserve Officers Training Corps entertained with the second Cadet Hop of the year. Patriotic emblems were used in the decorations of the Armory and Carson Howard's West Virginians played the program of dances.

TAU THETA RHO—January 14

Old rose and silver proved to be an effective background for the annual winter formal given by the active members and pledges of Tau Theta Rho.

Overt Halloran's Merry Mountaineers played during the evening.

TAU DELTA THETA—January 14

Members of the Tau Delta Theta fraternity entertained with their annual winter formal. Blue and white, the fraternity's colors, were used artistically in the decorations.

Zellorie's orchestra of Clarksburg played a clever program of dances.

BETA THETA PI—January 14

The Beta Theta Pi pledges were hosts to the active members and their guests. The fraternity colors, pink and blue, predominated in the decorations of the various rooms in the chapter house.

Carson Howard's West Virginians furnished the music for the evening.

DELTA KAPPA PSI—January 15, 1927

The decorations for their first formal party of the year were maroon and white, the fraternity colors, and old gold and blue, the University colors. The young men presented their guests with maroon and white date books. The music was by Al Mabey's musicians.

DELTA TAU DELTA-PHI SIGMA KAPPA—January 15

An exceedingly novel party was given in the Armory by the Delta Tau Deltas and the Phi Sigma Kappas. The guests gained entrance to a well equipped barn by means of a hay chute. Rustic lanterns cast a cheerful light on the revellers, dressed appropriately in gingham dresses and overalls.

Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played for the dancers.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO—January 15

A profusion of green and gold, the colors of the fraternity, and the W. V. U. colors prevailed throughout the attractive decorations of the Alpha Gamma Rho chapter house on Willey street. The lighting effect was achieved by means of lighted emblems and letters on the walls of the various rooms. Music was furnished by Carson Howard's West Virginians. During the intermission a light lunch was served.

PHI KAPPA PSI—January 15, 1927

The Phi Psi pledges entertained the active members at an elaborate formal party in their chapter house on Spruce street. A group of Morgantown alumni and their ladies were patrons and patronesses for the party which was of a rather unusual nature. Overt Halloran and his Merry Mountaineers were at their best.

CHI OMEGA—January 21

A striking effect was produced in the black and white decorations which transformed the Armory for the prep party given in honor of the active members of the Chi Omega sorority. Lanterns, some bearing the name of the sorority and others the pledge pin were suspended from the drop ceiling and cast a mellow light over the guests as they danced to the program played by Carson Howard's West Virginians. Novel programs in the shape of the well known paddle were presented to the dancers.

ALPHA DELTA PI—January 21

Dressed in bright smocks the pledges of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority were charming hostesses to the active members and a number of their friends who were also dressed in keeping with the Bohemian scheme. Decorations and programs were ingeniously chosen to carry out the effect. Overt Halloran's Merry Mountaineers played an appropriate program of dances.

DELTA GAMMA—January 22

The decorations were in direct contrast to the warm reception given their guests at their winter formal dance on Grant street. A cleverly assimilated snowstorm filled the space overhead, while wintry scenes and landscapes on the walls continued the outdoor effect. Overt Halloran's Merry Mountaineers furnished the music.

CHI DELTA PHI—January 22, 1927

The attractive chapter house on McClain avenue was appropriately decorated in purple and lavender for the winter formal given by the active members of the Chi Delta Phi sorority.

Beneath shaded lights the guests danced to the beautiful program played by Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra.

PI TAU DELTA PREP PARTY—January 21

Peldges of the Pi Tau Delta sorority were hostesses to the members and many guests in their chapter house which was decorated in yellow and white streamers made more elaborate by a lighted prep pin and a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Overt Halloran played for the dancers.

JUNIOR PROM—February 7

The mid-winter social season reached its climax between semesters when the Juniors entertained the Seniors with a dance of uuusual brilliance.

Under a dome of Old Gold and Blue, in the mellow light of fanciful lanterns the guests danced to the alluring music played by Dave Harman's Greater Orchestra.

Many out of town visitors were among the dancers and several Greek letter fraternities entertained with elaborate dinner parties in their chapter houses before the dance.

NEWMAN CLUB FORMAL—February 18

Members of the Newman Club entertained their many friends at a formal dance held at Newman Hall from eight till eleven.

SIGMA CHI—February 19

The members of the active chapter were the guests of the pledges at a formal dance given in the chapter house. The walls of the room were covered with black and white striped paper and stars were fastened on the drop ceiling. Soft wall lights played on the dancers. At ten o'clock a light lunch was served. Al Mabey and his orchestra were at their best.

ENGINEERS' BALL—February 19

A brilliant calcium light cast a wierd reflection over the engineers and their guests while the spirit of merriment and informality prevailed. Carson Howard's orchestra played a lively program of dances and the programs were cleverly arranged with phrases of engineering termnology.

HASH SLINGERS' BALL—February 19, 1927

The students employed at Woman's Hall and the University Cafeteria were hosts to a number of their friends at an informal dance given in the parlors of the Woman's Hall. Overt Halloran's orchestra played for the dancers. Neat programs were given to the guests and light refreshments were served.

CO-ED PROM—March 10

Unusually graceful young "men" danced with their bewitchingly gowned partners under a canopy of old gold and blue in the University Armory. Al Mabey's orchestra furnished the music and during the intermission light refreshments were served.

This dance probably attracted more attention than any other event on the social calendar and was a most decided success. Near the close of the evening the charming couples joined in a grand march of striking brilliance.

PAN-HELLENIC—March 11

The Greek letter men on the University campus were guests to hundreds of their friends from nine till one in the Armory which was artistically transformed by means of a black and white canopy centered by the huge dome of red and white. On each side of the hall were attractive boothes decorated in the banners and colors of the various fraternities.

Joe Nesbitt's orchestra of Sunbury, Pennsylvania, played throughout the evening and presented several clever featurs during short intermissions.

Before the dance members of the Sigma Chi, Pi Kappa Alpha, Delta Tau Delta, and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities entertained their guests at attractive dinner parties.

PHI DELTA THETA INSTALLATION BALL—March 11

At a brilliant ball given in the Hotel Morgan members of the Phi Delta Lambda fraternity were hosts to members and officers of the Phi Delta Theta from nearby cities and to a number of visitors from other organizations.

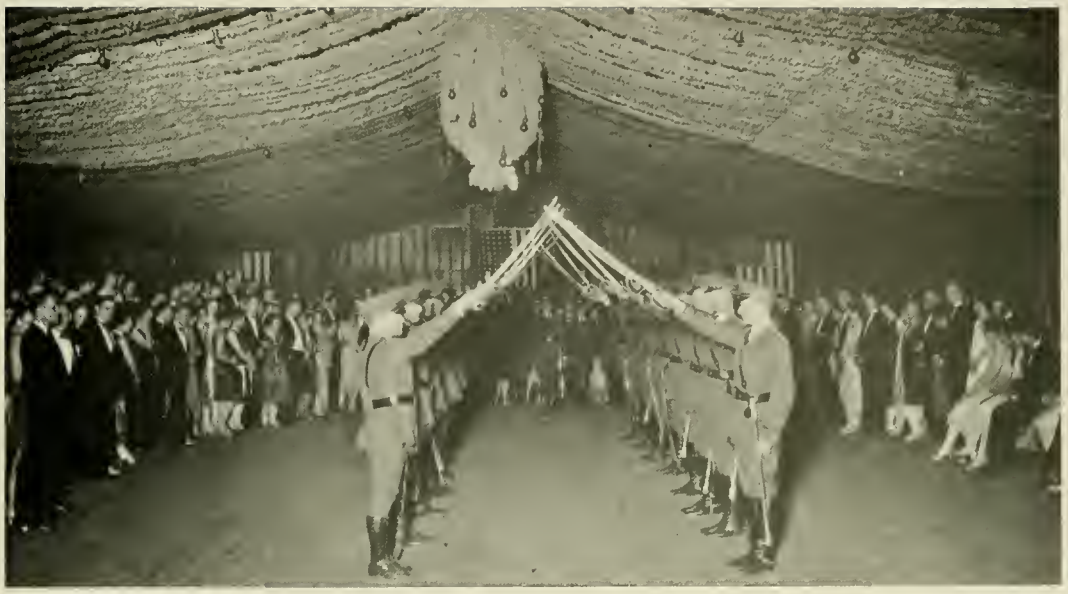
ALPHA DELTA PI—March 25

Blue and white, the colors of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority, were predominant in the decorations for the spring formal held in the Armory. The program of dances was played by Overt Halloran's Merry Mountaineers.

PI BETA PHI—March 26

The chapter house was gay with festive decorations of palms, balloons and serpentine for the spring formal given by the members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Overt Halloran's orchestra played throughout the evening.



THIRD CADET HOP—April 2, 1927

With most impressive ceremonies the Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, during an intermission in the dancing, pledged the following men: E. B. Bias, C. G. Krebs, J. Q. Cottrell, J. P. Paine, R. W. King, R. A. Wallrabenstein, J. G. Zeveley, R. C. Rogers, A. T. Watson and McGee. This was a very unusual addition to the enjoyable dance at which about three hundred guests were present. The Armory was decorated with patriotic flags and colors and Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played the program of dances.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON—April 9

The members of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity entertained with a cabaret dance at their chapter house. The lighting effect was novel in the use of lanterns and emblems. Cherry and gray decorations made a gay setting for the dancers and a lounging room in the basement was attractively decorated with ferns and evergreens.

Carson Howard's West Virginians played the program of dances.

SENIOR PROM—April 22

Coming the first week-end after the Easter holiday the Senior Prom was one of the most elaborate events on the spring social calendar. Peck Mills' Marylanders of Cumberland, Maryland, played for what will be a long remembered dance, the farewell party of the class of '27.

PAN-HELLENIC—April 23

The third Pan-Hellenic of the year was of an informal nature. The Armory was decorated in the colors of the 1927 Senior Class and of the various fraternities. Ingenious programs in keeping with the spirit of Spring were given to the dancers. Music was furnished by Peck Mills' Marylanders of Cumberland, Maryland. Refreshments were served by The Boston Caterers. Many out of town visitors were guests at the dance and at dinner parties given in many of the fraternity houses on the campus.

PHI KAPPA PSI—April 29

Visiting members from chapters of Phi Kappa Psi here for the District Convention were honored at a formal dance given by the West Virginia Alpha Chapter. Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played during the evening in the spacious rooms of the chapter house which were artistically decorated in red and green.

The representatives here for the conclave were from Carnegie Institute of Technology, Allegheny College, Washington and Jefferson University, Wittenburg College, Case School of Applied Sciences, Ohio State University, Ohio Wesleyan University and Penn State College.

SEO BEOWULF GEDRYHT—April 29

In order to raise funds to buy a picture to be hung in the new Women's building the Seo Beowulf Gedryht club gave a benefit dance in the University Armory. Carson Howard's orchestra played the program of dances.

GENERAL UNIVERSITY DANCE—April 30

The third University dance given in the Armory was of an informal nature. Carson Howard's West Virginians played during the evening and light refreshments were served.

PI LAMBDA PHI—May 6-7

Guests of the Pi Lambda Phi fraternity were elaborately entertained throughout the week-end. Friday night the chapter house was the scene of a formal dinner party and dance.

Saturday night an informal cabaret dance was also given at the chapter house. The clever decorations were emphasized by the flickering lights of candles stuck in beer bottles. Jake Gessner's Southerners played for both functions.

THETA CHI—May 6

A spring formal of unusually elaborate appointments was given by the Theta Chi fraternity at the chapter house on Cobun avenue. The house was effectively decorated with a profusion of dog-wood and cherry blossoms which helped to carry out the effect of the red and white colors of the fraternity to perfection.

Davenports were placed on the porches and here a light lunch was served during the intermission. At the close of the evening the hosts presented their guests with silver slave bracelets bearing the coat of arms.

SIGMA CHI—May 6

Perfect in every detail was the spring formal given by Mu Mu chapter of Sigma Chi at which one hundred and ten guests were entertained. During the early part of the evening a delectable five course dinner was served in the chapter house while Al Mabey's orchestra played a delightful dinner program. The place cards in the blue and gold of the fraternity proved also to be a clever arrangement of the program of dances, inviting the guests to the beautiful ballroom of the Hotel Morgan from nine o'clock until eleven-thirty.

KAPPA ALPHA—May 6

White predominated in the summer attire of the guests and members of the Kappa Alpha fraternity at the elaborate beach party given at their chapter house on North High street.

The visitors entered spacious club rooms, filled with palms and ferns and danced to music played by Hawkins colored orchestra of Uniontown, Pa. During the evening a moonlight beach was discovered on the floor below. Small tables under huge beach parasols placed on the white sands, invited the guests to indulge in delicious refreshments.

KAPPA SIGMA—May 7

Spring blossoms were predominant in the decorations of the chapter house of the Kappa Sigma fraternity where the members were hosts to a number of visitors at their spring formal. Among the blossoms were interwoven streamers of scarlet, green and white and the rooms were dimly lighted with many-colored lanterns.

Carson Howard's West Virginians furnished the music and attractive programs in the form of a shield bearing the fraternity coat of arms were presented to the guests.

MIAMI TRIAD DANCE—May 7

The installation of Phi Delta Theta completes the Miami Triad at West Virginia University. This Triad is composed of Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, and Phi Delta Theta, all three of these fraternities having been founded within a few years of each other at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Honoring this occasion the members of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity were hosts to the members of Sigma Chi and Beta Theta Pi at a formal dance given in the Armory.

Al Mabey's Old Gold and Blue orchestra played throughout the evening.

PHI KAPPA SIGMA—May 7

Black and gold festooning and shaded lights were effectively used in the decoration of the spacious rooms of the fraternity house in which the members of Phi Kappa Sigma entertained their many friends with a formal party. Hawkins Peerless Syncopators from Uniontown, Pa., played during the evening. Programs in the shape of the skull, emblematic of the fraternity were given as souvenirs.

SIGMA DELTA PHI—May 7

The Sigma Delta Phi fraternity entertained many friends at a formal party given at their home in Highland Park which was decorated in gray and blue. Bob McGowan's Syncopating Pirates of Pittsburgh, Pa., played the program of dances. During the intermission a light lunch was served. At the close of the dance the ladies were given combination address and date books bound in the fraternity colors.

PI KAPPA ALPHA—May 28

An elaborate dinner at the Morgan Hotel preceded the annual spring formal given by the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity at their new chapter house on North High street. The house was decorated in the colors of the fraternity, garnet and gold. At the close of a most enjoyable evening the young ladies were presented with Japanese dolls baring the coat of arms and containing perfume.

REVIEW OF THE 1926 FOOTBALL SEASON

Despite the fact that West Virginia lost four of the ten games played during 1926, the past Mountaineer season has been declared successful in more than one respect.

Eastern sport scribes have ranked West Virginia with Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard, Iowa, Penn State and Wisconsin, and above such colleges as Chicago, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Tulane, Oregon, Kansas, Fordham and many other strong teams.

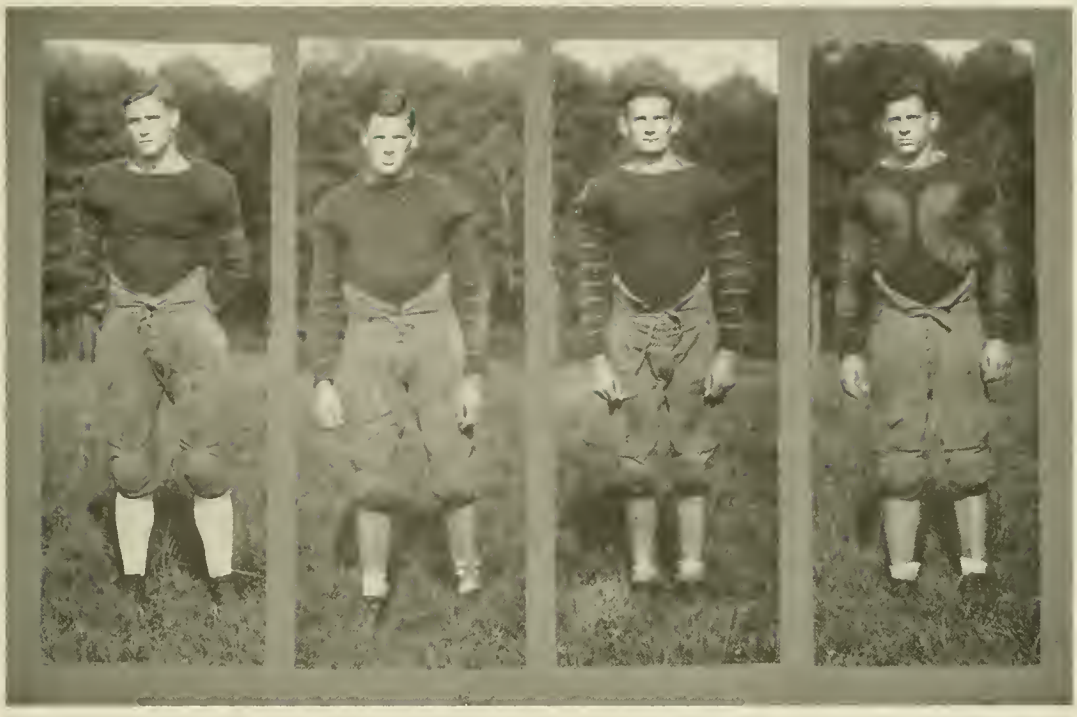
It will be remembered that only a few years ago West Virginia was battling desperately to win from Marietta, Morris-Harvey and others, and when the season was concluded with a 7-0 victory over Villanova, Mountaineer fans were satisfied. To have mentioned a West Virginia eleven of fifteen or a score of years ago in the same breath with Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, and other teams of like calibre, would have elicited only guffaws from the so-called experts.

A composite statistical chart covering the ten games in which the Mountaineers participated this year shows that the West Virginia eleven outplayed her opponents in all departments of the game save in aerial work and in avoiding infractions of the rules.

Furthermore, the chart reveals that the Mountaineers outscored its opponents in every quarter, the widest margin of superiority being shown in the second and fourth quarters, resulting usually from marches that had been started in the first and third periods of the games. Opponents were held to a minimum of one touchdown and two field goals in the third quarter. Missouri scored the touchdown, and Washington and Jefferson scored the field goals.

"Mike" Hardy, 158-pound line-smashing Mountaineer fullback led his teammates in scoring, both in carrying the ball over the goal and in converting into points the tries after touchdowns. He succeeded in crossing the enemy goal line six times and kicked the extra point nine times, making a total of 45 points. Hamilton finished second best with four touchdowns and three extra-point scores to his credit.

During the five year period beginning with the 1922 season, West Virginia has lost but seven games, and stands third in the number of points scored, following Alabama and Notre Dame. In the percentage of games won and lost during that period she stands sixth, which is not a bad record, considering that four games were lost this year.



Latham Lewis Straight Keefer

The 1926 season is now past history and Coach Rodgers is already making plans for 1927. Only two regulars, Ross McHenry, captain of this year's team and "Horse" Lough, will be lost to the squad, unless Captain-elect "Ed" Morrison finishes his work toward a degree in June.

W. V. U. 18—DAVIS-ELKINS 6

Crafty Cam Henderson, the mystery-shrouded mentor of the Randolph County College, arrived in Morgantown for the opening contest with an eleven which, according to state newspaper scribes, was bulging to the ears with mysterious trick plays, and an attack that would wilt the youthful Mountaineer team.

It was a thrilling battle and one that kept the some 7,000 spectators in a high state of excitement throughout.

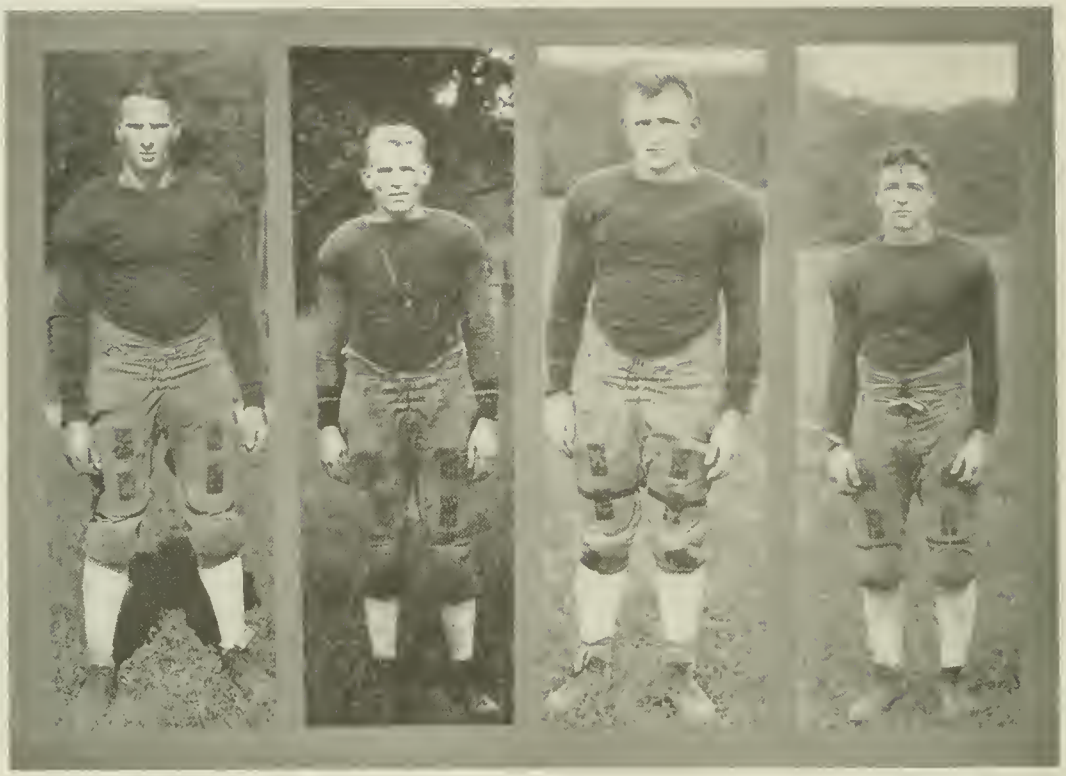
Davis and Elkins tore into the Mountaineers with all of the fury the Scarlet Hurricane had been expected to show, and scored a touchdown in the first quarter, which was played in a driving rain.

Early in the second quarter the dogged persistence of the Mountaineers began to tell, and Davis-Elkins proved unequal to the task. They had made a superhuman effort to get away to a lead in the opening period, and though apparently in good condition, they were not able to hold the Mountaineers in check

In the middle of the second quarter the big chance for West Virginia came. Getting the ball on their 33-yard line the Mountaineers marched straight for the Hurricane goal, and "Big Ed" Morrison pounded it over.

Hardy plunged his way for the second West Virginia score in the third quarter, after Talbott had broken away for 42 yards to the D. and E. 2-yard line.

The Mountaineers' third and final marker was made in the fourth canto by Hamilton after eluding the entire D. and E. team in a sensational run.



Jennewine Glenn G. Nixon Meisel

W. V. U. 18—W. AND L. 0

Playing with an irresistible dash in the first and second quarters, that disregarded completely weather conditions as unfavorable as any football game was ever played under, the Mountaineers literally tore through the Washington and Lee eleven for an 18-0 victory. The game was played at Laidley Field, Charleston, before a crowd of 10,000 that remained in their seats despite the torrential rain that fell all during the contest.

Without a doubt the Mountaineers' superior running attack decided the issue. The Generals were helpless before the West Virginia onslaught, and failed at all times to furnish defensive weapons sufficiently strong enough to stem the Mountaineer tide.

West Virginia received the kickoff, made it first down in two attempts, and then kicked, Glenn sending the oval 52 yards. W. and L. failed to make their yardage and West Virginia again took the ball, this time to crush the General line three times for substantial gains before Ryan, diminutive quarterback, carried the ball over the line.

"Sleepy" Glenn scored the second, and Hamilton the third touchdowns.

The Generals threatened only once, when in the final minutes of the game, Captain Rauber ripped the Mountaineer line four times for two first downs, and then passed to Whitlock as the game ended.

W. V. U. 54—ALLEGHENY 0

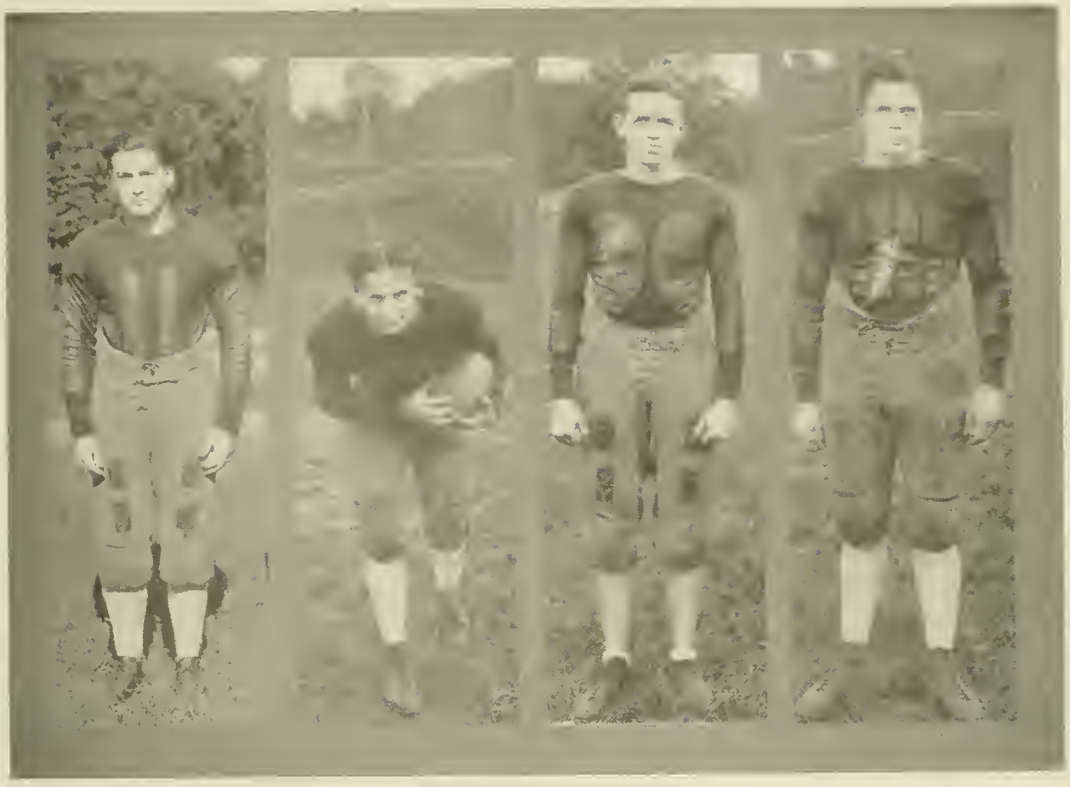
It was ideal football weather, with the sun shining brightly and a tang of cold in the air, when the Allegheny College eleven arrived on the field.

West Virginia kicked off and scrimmaged on the Allegheny 25-yard line. Allegheny lost the ball on a fumble, and from then on it was West Virginia's game.

The Mountaineer offense formed quickly, and they were off to a whirlwind start, scoring in each of the four periods.

Allegheny's vaunted aerial attack failed to give the locals any trouble and most of the attempts were grounded.

Although the Mountaineers overwhelmed the Meadville Collegians it would be difficult to single out any one particular star in the day's performance. All of the regular backs of the Mountaineer eleven figured largely in the scoring.



Murrin Garrett Hamilton Talbott

Coaches Rodgers and Merritt were opposing each other for the second time as they sat on opposite sides of the gridiron. The first meeting was during the spring of 1919 when the Mountaineer baseball team played Dartmouth at Hanover, New Hampshire. The scorebook shows that Rodgers was at short stop for West Virginia and that Merritt played left field for the Green.

W. V. U. 13—GEORGETOWN 10

After fighting in the role of the underdog until the closing minutes of the last quarter, a desperate Mountaineer football machine turned defeat into victory by a beautifully executed pass, Morrison to Glenn, "Sleepy" taking the pass just as he fell over the goal line for a touchdown.

For a real football "Thriller" the contest was not equaled during the entire season, and Washington sport scribes were unanimous in their decision that the game was one of the most closely contested that the capital city has ever seen.

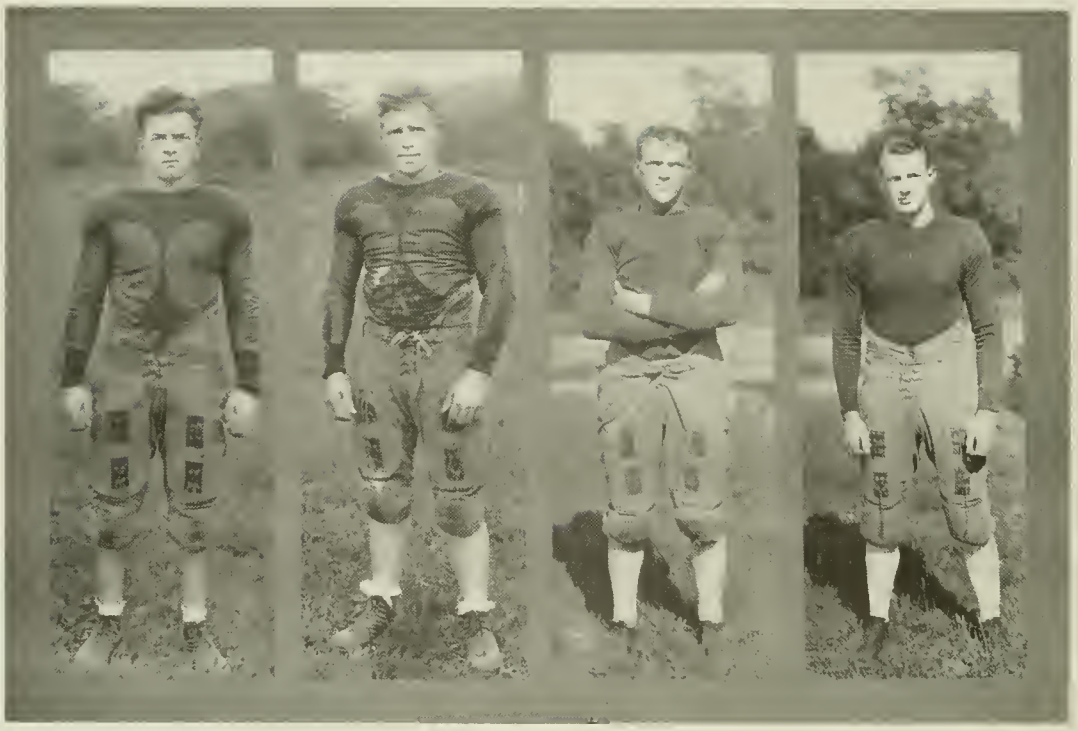
"Sleepy" Glenn, "Big Ed" Morrison, "Winnie" Latham, and Meisel were the stars in the Mountaineer sky of victory, while Keefer and Hamilton played great ball. For Georgetown Thompson and O'Neil were the outstanding performers.

Morrison made the first touchdown on an intercepted pass after running 66 yards behind an air-tight interference that formed instantly.

The Irish retaliated shortly afterward, however, when Glenn's punt was blocked on the West Virginia 18-yard line and Georgetown completed a pass for their first score. O'Neil kicked goal and Georgetown assumed a one-point lead.

Glenn was forced to punt under difficulty throughout the game, as the West Virginia line failed to hold the Georgetown forwards who were rushing down on the punter.

Early in the third quarter the Irish strengthened their hold on the game when O'Neil was successful in his attempt at goal from placement



Ryan Hardy Lough Patrick

The Mountaineer attack, however, continued undaunted until the ball was once again over the Irish goal for victory.

W. V. U. 7—WESLEYAN 0

Fighting relentlessly in a hammer-and-tongs contest that kept the spectators on edge until the last minute, a rugged Mountaineer eleven fresh from an unexpected victory over Georgetown pounded its way in the last quarter to victory over its time-honored rival, West Virginia Wesleyan.

The pounder was Mike Hardy, who plunged, fought, and dragged his way down the field over the Boh Cat line to give West Virginia its hard-earned victory. Hardy did not start the game but certainly tore things up when he got his chance.

Cassie Ryan, diminutive Mountaineer quarterback, played a great game and was perhaps second to Hardy in saving the day for West Virginia. Twice he stopped Wesleyan backfield men when they were headed for the Mountaineer goal with an open field, save for himself.

For Wesleyan, the squirming, hard-hitting, line plunging of Kraus, and the passing of McClung were the principal factors.

The Rodgerites missed a splendid opportunity to score in the latter part of the third quarter when they pushed the ball to the Wesleyan 2-yard line only to lose it on a fumble.

W. V. U. 0—MISSOURI 27

An Old Gold and Black Tiger eleven from the University of Missouri prowled on the greensward of Mountaineer Field on the afternoon of October 30 with disastrous results to the light Mountaineer eleven. The Mountaineers fought valiantly but they were up against the strongest machine seen here in a decade and their finest efforts went for naught, Missouri galloping away with a 27-0 victory.
worst since the Pitt debacle in 1919.

It was the first defeat suffered by West Virginia in the new stadium, and one of the "Big George" Flamank, aided by such stars as Captain Carl Baccbus, Edgar Lin-denmyer, Clark, Stuber, O'Sullivan and others, was too much for Coach Rodgers' men. Missouri also demonstrated its reserve strength by playing West Virginia on better than even terms after making replacements in its ranks.

The Missouri forward wall was invincible to the never-tiring pounding of the Mountaineer backs, while the rugged "Show-me" backs tore through the light West Virginia almost at will. Mike Hardy's sensational run in the first play of the second half, when he side-stepped his way for sixty-four yards from the kickoff was probably the only serious threat from the Mountaineers during the whole four periods.

W. V. U. 7—PITTSBURGH 17

Weakened apparently by the terrific drubbing received the week before from the powerful Missouri eleven, the Moutaineers arrived in Pittsburgh on the night of November 5, determined that Pitt, its traditional rival, should bear the brunt of the comeback.

But as the shadows of late afternoon of the next day began to stretch lazily from the big stadium on the hill, the Panther emerged the victor, but not until the final whistle had sounded the knell of one of the greatest battles ever witnessed in the Smoky City.

Pitt proved to be too strong for the Rodgerites, scoring a touchdown early in the first quarter, another early in the fourth, and a field goal later in the same period. West Virginia was able to score but once, in the opening of the third quarter when Julian Murrin fell on Welch's fumble on the Pitt 2-yard line for the Mountaineers' lone score.

It was the third successive time that the Panthers had defeated West Virginia. A crowd of 35,000 witnessed the game.

A native son of West Virginia, Gibby Welch, of Parkersburg, was the backfield star for Pitt, being responsible for both of his team's touchdowns. Mike Hardy, hard-hitting fullback, ably assisted by Julian Murrin, was the outstanding performer for the Mountaineers.

W. V. U. 21—CENTRE 0

Ever mindful of the severe drubbing received at the hands of Centre College in 1919 when the Kentucky institution was only a little school that no one had ever heard of, and at the time when West Virginia had just made a name for herself by defeating Princeton, the Mountaineers arrived in Parkersburg eager for victory, and they got it.

Clarence Keefer, substituting for Big Ed Morrison, and Mike Hardy, varsity halfback, were the big guns in the Mountaineer offense which tore the Colonel line into shreds as the ball was carried consistently into enemy territory.

West Virginia's first score was tallied by Winnie Latham in the first quarter when he blocked a Centre punt and fell on it over the goal line.

Hardy was responsible for the second touchdown, plunging it across the line after the ball had been carried into scoring distance as a result of a sustained march from the West Virginia 40-yard line to the Centre goal line. At the same corresponding time and distance in the fourth quarter the last touchdown of the game was made.

W. V. U. 0—CARNEGIE TECH 20

Bewildered by a maze of trick plays, brilliantly executed and strategically utilized, the Mountaineers were completely routed, suffering one of the worst defeats ever recorded on the pages of gridiron history, by the deception of Wally Steffen's Carnegie Tech team.

The Tartans uncorked a number of dazzling plays in the first of the game which resulted in two touchdowns for the Plaid before the first quarter was over. The Mountaineers came back in the following two periods to hold Tech scoreless, and it was only in the closing minutes of the game that Tech was able to shove the ball over for the third touchdown.

It was the first time that West Virginia and Carnegie Tech had met on the gridiron for 18 years, and the return welcome of the Tartans was certainly an impressive one.

The game opened with Tech returning Keefer's kick-off from the goal line to its 17-yard stripe. Donohoe, Letzelter, and Mefort, aces in the Plaid backfield, were soon taking the ball in great strides toward the Mountaineer goal line.

Big Ed Morrison, forced to remain out of the Mountaineer line-up in the two preceding games was back in harness, but even the presence of Rodgers' invincible defense man failed to stop the slippery Donohoe and his mates who consistently knifed their way through the line or ran the ends for big gains.

The game ended with Tech in possession of the ball on the West Virginia 18-yard line.

W. V. U. 3—W. AND J. 13

A desperate rally, a momentary halt, a punt, and the game was over. For the first time since that eventful day in 1921, the Red and Black of W. and J. waved triumphantly from the masthead at Mountaineer Field, and by virtue of this fact, from the masthead of the tri-state championship for 1926.

Over 23,000 persons swarmed through the portals of the stadium to witness the contest with our annual Turkey Day foe. Time after time they were brought to their feet during tense moments in the game which has been acclaimed as one of the greatest ever staged in the stadium.

West Virginia entered the game the favorites, but before the ball had been in play many minutes it was evident that the Presidents were equally as strong, and would make a determined bid for victory.

For more than three-fourths of the game the Mountaineers held the lead by the narrow margin of three points earned in the second quarter. At this juncture Big Ed Morrison, stellar West Virginia fullback, was injured and forced to retire from the field. After the withdrawal of Morrison the Mountaineer defense seemed to wither. Kirkman, brilliant President backfield ace suddenly knifed his way through the Mountaineer line for sixty yards and a touchdown. This was followed soon afterwards by field goals by Amos and Edwards of the enemy backfield.

Probably the most significant feature of the contest was that neither team suffered a single yardage of penalty throughout.

REVIEW OF THE 1926-27 SEASON

Anxious to again sweep the Tri-state championships the Mountaineer basketball five, after undergoing a strenuous training campaign, started out in whirlwind fashion, winning seven of the first nine games. Soon after, however, came a mid-season slump that did not end until five consecutive defeats had been suffered at the hands of Wittenburg, Grove City (two), Allegheny and Pitt.

Still determined to make a fighting bid for the Tri-state honors, the team embarked upon a program of redoubled training activity that culminated in a spirited rally in which it twice defeated Wesleyan (at Clarksburg and Buckhannon) and turned back the strong W. and J. quint. The extra effort, however, proved useless as the five defeats suffered during the slump proved to be too much of a handicap when the final summing up of the averages took place.

As the books closed the Mountaineers had a record of nine victories against seven defeats to represent the season.

Despite the up and down season, West Virginia was offered a last opportunity to ring down the curtain in something resembling a blaze of glory when the Scarlet Hurricane five of Davis Elkins college challenged them to a post season game to be played on neutral ground for the collegiate championship of the state. The challenge was accepted and the contest, one of the hardest fought in the history of the floor game of the University, was staged at Clarksburg. Davis Elkins won.

The regular season record of the Mountaineers was not affected by the loss of the D. and E. game, and is considered by followers as a complete success.

REVIEW OF THE 1927 WRESTLING SEASON

While from the viewpoint of victories and defeats the 1927 season has been one of the poorest in West Virginia's wrestling history, it is well to remember that the Mountaineers were under the twin handicap of building a new team, while attempting the most difficult mat schedule that has ever been arranged for a University team.

West Virginia lost to Oklahoma A. and M., national collegiate and A. A. U. champions; the University of Illinois, title holders of the Western Conference, and the United States Naval Academy, always strong at the mat game.

Against these four defeats were only two victories a 35-0 conquest over Ohio Wesleyan, and a 29-0 triumph over Notre Dame. However, even in defeat, the Mountaineers looked good, especially against Oklahoma. Although in this meet they won only a single match the opposition that they furnished their more experienced and skillful foes was so outstanding that the Oklahoma coach commented upon it.

The 19-6 defeat at the hands of the Navy was not so great a surprise. "Jimmy" Cox won the 125-pound bout by a big time advantage, while George Nixson conquered the Navy's heavyweight. Captain Joe Millender was defeated by a time advantage of less than a minute and a half. Adolph Cooper and "Steve" Krickovic were thrown, but Emil Suder and Ted Nixson held their more experienced Middy foemen to time decisions.

By taking a hand picked schedule West Virginia could have made a better paper showing for the season but Coach "Steve" Harrick should be glad that his men were sent against the best in the land, because the experience they gained thereby will give them a real advantage when they report next winter.

REVIEW OF THE YEARLING SCHEDULE

After considerable deliberation among the official staff of the athletic office and the several coaches over the advisability of attempting the organization of a freshman wrestling team this year, it was finally decided to do so. Despite the fact that the regular season was already well under way, the call for candidates was made and the task of developing the team started.

Owing to the fact that such a late start was made, it was extremely difficult to arrange a suitable schedule, with the final result that only two matches were contracted for, Point Pleasant high school and Huntington high school, both of which have always had strong mat teams, were the two schools met. The yearlings won both matches by overwhelming scores.

The vast amount of interest manifested in the first year team during the past season has warranted the athletic office to promise a well developed schedule for next year.

SUMMARY OF THE 1926 BASEBALL SEASON

Ten wins out of twenty starts is the record of the 1926 Mountaineer baseball team.

Misfortune was the pet of the squad from the very start, and despite the efforts of head coach Ira "Rat" Rodgers and trainer Okay Morrison to dispelt the jinx, injuries and other troubles continued to take their toll.

With a pitching staff declared by native critics to have been the most promising ever given to a Mountaineer nine, and with the rest of the squad made up mainly of veterans of the preceding year prospects were exceedingly bright for a wonder team.

Soon after the start of the training period, however, an epidemic of injuries set in that robbed the squad of its most promising material. In spite of this fact, however, the doughty mentor and his assistants started the team well on the road to a fair season, and all went well until the eastern trip. This trip was probably the most disastrous of the entire season. The Mountaineers lost five of the six games played during this time.

The team managed to slip into the 500 percent class when it defeated the alumni nine during the annual homecoming celebration.

RESUME OF THE 1926 TRACK SEASON

Even the most optimistic of Mountaineer supporters felt that the rookie track squad of '26 would have a "lean" year, and yet despite the fact that at the beginning of the season there was a dearth of material never before equalled in the history of the University, a very low ebb of interest in the sport in the student body, Coach Art N. Smith developed one of the strongest teams ever produced here.

It captured the mythical Tri-state championship for the fourth consecutive year, easily outclassing every opponent. It fell only once during the entire season and that was at the hands of the powerful Penn State team at the beginning of the season.

Later in the season Coach Smith's men walked away with a decisive victory over Pitt, our traditional rival, in a dual meet held in conjunction with the ninth interscholastic high school meet in Mountaineer Field.

As a fitting close to the successful season the Mountaineer trackmen ran, tossed and jumped their way to a smashing victory in the Pitt Intercollegiates, at which time they competed with representatives of the best teams of the tri-state secion.

Honoraries

Tau Beta Pi

HONORARY ENGINEERING SOCIETY

Tau Beta Pi was founded at Lehigh University in 1885. It is the oldest and most representative of the Honorary Engineering Societies and is the only one at West Virginia University. Its purpose is to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as undergraduates, or by their attainments as alumni. Distinguished scholarship is not considered the sole criterion although it is the primary requisite for admission.

Alpha chapter of West Virginia was formed from the local Theta Psi and was installed in 1922.

Phi Lambda Upsilon

(Honorary Chemical Society)

Phi Lambda Upsilon was founded at the University of Illinois in 1899. The object of the organization is the promotion of high scholarship and original investigation in all the branches of pure or applied Chemistry.

Election to membership is based on scholarship, which is determined by averaging all grades, giving Chemistry grades double weight, and on personality.

Each year the chapter awards a gold charm, known as the Whitehall Memorial Award, to the most proficient student in the first year Chemistry classes.

Tau Chapter, at West Virginia University was established in 1924.

Mortar Board

Woman's Senior Honorary Organization
Founded at University of Syracuse, 1918

Laurel Chapter Established at West Virginia University, 1925

The purpose of the Laurel Chapter of Mortar Board is to encourage and recognize leadership in student activities among women of the University. In the spring of each year such junior women as have become eligible by activity in student affairs are chosen to membership. The organization strives to promote movements for the best interests for the state and for student life at West Virginia University.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

Established 1884

West Virginia University Branch
Established 1915

The West Virginia Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers is one of the sixty-eighth student branches in the United States. It was organized in 1915 under the direction of Professor V. Karapetoff of Cornell University and Professor W. E. Dickinson of West Virginia University.

The objects of the institution are the advancement of the theories and practice of Electrical Engineering and of allied arts and sciences, the maintenance of a high professional standing among its members and the development of the individual engineer.

Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation was organized at West Virginia University in 1920 and became a legal corporation late in 1925. Its purpose is to promote physical, intellectual, moral, and religious training for the students.

METHODIST STUDENT COUNCIL

The Methodist Student Council is the organized group of students of the Wesley Foundation in charge of the Methodist student activities. It contains the executive officers of all branches of the Methodist student activities. Its purpose is to increase the spirit of service among the students by training them for religious work, and to direct and carry on student work of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The Wesley House is used by the Methodist students and their friends for religious and social activities. It is the Methodist student center and is open seven days every week for student use.

Four Words

(and then some)

We have been inspirited to such an extent by the actions and thoughts of the mighty seniors of our dear collich that we have deemed it fitting and proper that we should endeavor to exhibit to them some fitting recognition of their deeply appreciated guidance and council that has been so freely given by them.

This, we feel, a noble monument to the pure and honest lives of the "fairies of this great institution of higher edication. If it is not it is because our tongues have been dumbed, our expressive faculties shackled, our descriptive abilities cowered by the presence of those exhaulted ones who are our guiding flame of light.

As we see it, there are two types of persons who roam these environs whom doth pain us greatly and without cecession, namely,

(1) Students
(2) Faculty

The following pages evidence that ever-prevalent depravity of mortal man, to be specific, revenge.

If we have not revealed the dirt about you it is because:

(1) We were afraid to print it.
(2) Your settlement with the business manager was of sufficient monetary amount.
(3) We haven't heard it.

FOR THOSE DEAR DEPARTED FELLOW STUDENTS WHOSE INABILITIES AND SHORTCOMINGS WERE SOURCES OF ANNOYANCE TO THE FACULTY, FOUNTAINS OF PLEASURE FOR THE BORED CLASSES, EDIFYING STANDARDS FOR OUR OWN MEDIOCRITY, AND EVER-READY, DELIGHTFUL COMPANIONS IN OUR LEISURE, DO WE SILENTLY PRAY. THOUGH THEY HAVE DROPPED BY THE WAYSIDE AND MUST NEVER ASPIRE TO HEIGHTS OF PRESIDENCIES, MAY THEIR GROCER—AND CLERKSHIPS BRING THEM HAPPINESS THAT THEIR LACK OF KNOWLEDGE DENIES THEM. Dedication

of
Hollywood, Calif.

Miss Bow, Glyn's little Circe, has those things which the co-eds in these parts—most of them come here because they can't rate elsewhere—have not To wit: a pretty face, neat ankles, and a lotta pash! Would that she attended W. V. U. In such a contingency, possibly some of the corn-feds who trod these noble hills would purchase some listerine and cease wearing cotton hose.

Since the refusal of Ham Cunningham and Jake Seposnekow to accept the vacancy now permanently, almost, left by the retiring President, on the grounds that their mighty intellects are insufficient for the occasion, there has been quite a controversy concerning the filling of this vacancy.

Like all other worthy organizations, the Muddycola has a candidate to put before the august potencies at our capitol. The man we have in mind will undoubtedly be given serious consideration when we mention him later. He is perhaps a dark horse, but a man whose character is as scintillating and unbesmirched as his complexion is dusky. His stock is the purest, coming from some of the best families in Virginia. His ability in handling men, as well as football players, is known throughout the tri-state district.

Ladies and gentlemen, our candidate is none other than that estimable amiable Okey Ogden, whose virtues show him far more worthy of the grueling position than any one who has gone before him.

Mr. Ogden was not the least reticent in expressing his opinions on the matter and as usual when critical situations arise was not in the least hard to find and interview. He replied in concise and point-blank form to all the questions put to him: "I am not in the least abashed to place myself in the running. No, I think necking should be allowed in all the sororities. I enjoy good Beechnut at times and see no reason why the girls should not be allowed to use tobacco in all forms."

Administration

To point out any exact person or persons or even things as the Administration would be approaching the impossible. The "buck is passed" from President to Registrar, Registrar to Dean, Dean to class officer, from the latter to his secretary and then to the poor ignorant cuss who is seeking intelligence and knowledge. He soon decides after chasing through twenty buildings that it is better to do a thing oneself if he wants the job done right. Thus schedules, petitions, class cards, and the like are under the Administration of the students, without whom the school would undoubtedly fail to function. With one exception, though, are the aforesaid scholars free from the illegible omnipotence of professors. That we shall discuss in the next paragraph.

The one factor that regulates and conditions much of the conduct of the above-named group must not be overlooked. More famous than Bluebeard's den, the source of the most original matbematical thought since Newton, the center of more clerical than even Lamb faced or Gorki's Cloakman underwent, the scene of potent excuses, reasons, arguments, advices, warnings, and expulsions—such is the Room of a Thousand Lies, the domicile and habitat of the first, last and only dean to be elevated to the ranks of Fi Bater Cappar, Harry E. Stone. Here, with his two discouraging noncommittal, pessimistic assistants he tends to the workings of this mighty institution and juggles with the difficulties incurred by assuming three equal to one.

Three pens lie on the desk, surrounded by a multitude of blanks, blurs and blotters. So well trained are they that only the stimulus of a shaking hand weakened by the effect of ill health is necessary for them to trace out their time-worn phrase of "Absence due to illness." The worn carpet before still another desk, marked by the shuffling of feet and the shifting of weight, cries out, "Stand on me and be saved from the evils of college life. I am salvation. All moral degenerates leave me sanctified purifications." Yet another cabinet contains the secrets of all life, "Vocational Guidance," "How to be happy though rich," "Success through study," "Kindly advice to tender freshmen," all with the inevitable signature, H. E. S.

Montani Semper Liberi

A miner tanked with mountain dew
Romped gaily through the town.
He met the local Hawkshaw
And slapped the poor soul down.

Next day the eastern papers,
The large ones and the small;
Those read within the city
And in the timber tall.

Presented to the public
The woeful, ghastly news
How fourteen thousand guards were slain
By miners filled with booze.

They spread a wicked headline;
The public begged for more.
The gentle eastern readers
Must have their daily gore.

A prohibition officer
Went out to find a still;
A shiner shot him in the ribs
As he snooped up the hill.

Next day the eastern papers,
With type six inches high,
Tell of a mountain battle
Where sixteen thousand die.

It pains my soul,
It cramps my style,
It saps the joys of life
To think they would call an inch a mile
And write of fancied strife.

The honest people of the hills
Who like the quiet life
Have humble hearts and moonshine stills,
But very little strife.

The cities teem with gangsters,
And home brew made with yeast:
Hell's not in West Virginia,
You'll find it farther east.

SUMMER PASH TIME

Neck and the world necks with you
Don't and you stay at home
This poor old school
Needs not for a fool
It has plenty enough of its own.
Swing, though it makes you dizzy;
Slop, though you've ne'er been taught;
The door may creak
And the swing may squeak
But it's great if you don't get caught.

Beauty

Just because Miss Goldie Cluttz, Mannington, W. Va., took first place in the University Beauty Contest don't think for a minute that she will stop speaking to freshmen. No siree—she's used to taking first places. Back in Mannington when Franklin's Pharmacy conducted a contest and gave away a vote with each purchase, Goldie was seventy-two walnut sundaes ahead of her nearest rival. Which all goes to prove, as Ma Cluttz said over the back yard fence, that a hosiery manufacturer without Goldie's testimony won't rate a damn.

Metropolitan Theatre

'Where Morgantown Goes to See Good Shows'

NOT A LUXURY

The motion picture is the aristocrat of entertainment, yet it is not a luxury. It is a necessity And an inexpensive one. It is cheaper than a high-priced volume of travel. Instead of reading, one can from a comfortable theatre chair have the world placed before the eyes.

The far places of the Orient, the wonder cities of the world, and just for a few cents, without the inconvenience of travel. Where else can one so easily for a few hours forget the cares, the petty trials and tribulations of a work-day world? Where can one lose one-self so completely and so easily and come away refreshed, eager and willing to face problems once complex, now simple?

The pick of the pictures are offered you in the Metropolitan Theatre. The best brains of the motion picture industry are ceaselessly striving to gain your approval, to make you a friend, to entertain and amuse you.

What other one thing has done so much for music? Where else can you hear the best in music and the latest? Who offers you the masters of opera and the masters of jazz? The motion picture tbeatre

The motion picture theatre is the Arabian Nights Palace of Joy, where the wonders of the world are placed before you. The motion picture is a necessity, not a luxury.

Society

The number of debutantes and —tants among our social ranks has been surprisingly small this season, considering the environmental conditions of an inebratory nature that have as usual predominated among the elite. As exceptions, however, several of our rising youth ventured forth for the first time in the only noteworthy social event of the year, the Fi Batar Capper Brawl, which was held Easter Eve at Happy's Place.

This occasion of festivity and frolic was the source of much pleasure and pain on the part of all attending, the pain naturally being of a resultant nature, recuperation, etc. The hall was decorated in claborate style, hedecked with all of the organization's honorable symbols and besprinkled with their customary means of fertilization. The main feature and drawing surprise of the evening was a large oaken barrel, with accessable spigot, located in the center of the floor. (Ed. Note: The occasion of the Brawl is a dance; hence floor means dance floor.)

At almost any time perhaps one couple could be seen frolicking about the floor having, as it were, a staggering time. The sultry night caused many of the Epicurean Bachantes to seek the cooling atmosphere without. The music was voted by popular acclamation to be the best ever heard since Sunny came to the Delt House.

The official chaperons for the evening were Dean Martha Fulton and Dean Harry Stone, but due to the scarcity of taxis failed to show up. Needless to say, their absence was lamented.

In celebration of the occasion several of the local restaurants and laundries closed up shop, for they are always anxious to back the University in everything it wants to push across and to cooperate in making bigger and better Morgantown.

Minutes of Fraternity Meetings

SIGMA CHI

Meeting opened with a lesson in painting by Brother Hanson. Brother Woodroe moved that next year the number of pledges be limited to one hundred. Brother Sanders moved that roll-call be dispensed with as it took too long and that time clocks be installed instead. Brother Summers read a chapter from his new book. The meeting broke up when Brothers Shaid, Littlepage, Murrin, Zevely, and Walsh left to attend the Chi Omega fraternity meeting.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Meeting opened slowly. Brother Morrison announced himself open to suggestions how to beat the ten girls who are running after him. Brother Conaway moved that all the brothers vote for him as the best-dressed man in the University. Brother Lehman suggested that there was still a prohibition law in the country at which all the brothers laughed with abandon. Brother Deveny made a motion that the cook take away some of the bottles he had been leaving around the house. (Brother Holland asked Brothers Sample, Deveny, Bottome, and Bert Watson what fraternity Frances McCamic really belongs to, Delta Tau Delta or Kappa Kappa Gamma. The mystery was not cleared up.) Brother Bob Watson got up to sing and the meeting broke up with all the brothers strangling to death laughing.

BETA THETA PI

Meeting opened at last. Brother Dollman was asked to procure Athletic Books for a few of the Alumni. Brother Townsend read a report on what Beta Theta Pi is doing the University for. Brother Kit Lewis raised the devil because the chapter was going to the dogs. Brother Berry sniffed and said "Going?" Motion was made and seconded that they get a new house so they could pledge a few men next year. Brothers Woosey Lewis and Latham gave a lesson in football tactics. Brother Patrick moved that the chapter get a move on and put out a few pins. The other fraternities are getting ahead. Meeting adjourned with a "pass the loving cup around."

SIGMA NU

Meeting opened with a vote on "which do you prefer—hot lips or cold shoulders?" (Brother Coleman recommended that the fraternity get a full length portrait of Mary Jo Matthews and hang it in a conspicuous place.) Brother Sayre suggested that Brother Epling go out for solo dancing. Brother Aultz moved that all liquor be kept out of the house. Brothers Snyder and Amos wept bitterly as the motion passed. Brother Coleman read letters from his six out-of-town girls. Brother Snyder asked to be excused as he was going to pour over the books a little. Heh-Heh. Meeting finally came to a close by singing—

Fifteen men on a dead man's chest
Yo-ho-ho-and a bottle of rum.

KAPPA SIGMA

(A Senior asked the Ed. if they had a chapter on the campus.)

Meeting was called to order by the Star City police force. It was moved and seconded by Brother Hyde that two huses be bought to taket he boys back and forth from the house to school. Brothey Kay asked the boys to drum up a little trade for his European tour. Brother Fletcher suggested that Sister Kingsley be pledged. Brother Craig said that it looked to him like she was initiated. Meeting ended with a dance—music by Carson Howard.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Meeting burst open. Brother Arnett made a motion that the fraternity go on record as resolving that all women are an evil. Brother Hill objected and suggested that before any action was taken that Sister Albright be consulted. Brother Burchinell moved that they pledge some men. Brother Burchinell and Hill broke into an argument over the relative merits of Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Gamma. (But why worry about that when the girls have already decided?) Everybody left—in spite of the fact there was no motion to adjourn.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

Meeting opened with a bottle opener. Heh! Heh! Brother Hogue suggested that the house be cleaned for Farm Week. It was moved that pledge buttons be put out for better or for worse. Meeting adjourned in order that the boys could be off for the state Farm to make various tests.

PI SIGMA KAPPA

Meeting opened with a beaker of Gordon Water around. Brother Miller announced that he did not spend the last Week-end in Wheeling. Whereupon all of the brothers passed out. Meeting proceeded after they had been revived with "drinks around." Brother Vaught was elected Grand Exhaulted High Hat. It was reported that Brother Willhyde's moustache is so annoying of late that many girls are complaining. Brother Scott was reproved for leading so many of the brothers astray. Isn't it awful what a college will do for one? It was moved that a letter be written to Ramon Navarro that his double, Brother Straight, requested an audience. Brother Wagner broke up the meeting by leaning on a door. Brother Piper committed suicide after he had read a report on food consumed each week by each member. A last toast was drunk to Brother Bias and his way with the women.

KAPPA ALPHA

Meeting opened by a dramatic presentation of the "Shooting of Dan McGrew" by Brother Ayers and Brother Miller. Brother Mead moved that the report that their house contains an art gallery, pool room, swimming pool, smoking room, and so forth, be encouraged. Maybe this will help in the pledging of a few men next year. Brother Henking was requested to put the pictures of the brothers in a prominent place in The Monticola—(also to forget the bill.) Brother McQuail entertained the brethren with a style show. New members of the Fish Club were announced. An argument ensued as to who should be the Grand Exhaulted Whale. Brother Keeney won it without much trouble. It was decided that every K. A. who could not qualify for the Fish Club should hand in his pin. Meeting adjourned with a prayer by Brother Bare.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Someone suggested that Brother Hadden quit playing that damn piano long enough to have a meeting. It was moved that Brother Bob McCarnes—since he has so much influence in Dean Stone's office—get a few of the brothers' cuts excused. Brother Hobensack moved that he be run in the Spring Elections. Motion failed. Brother Elletson suggested that Brother Wade lead a rousing cheer so as to awaken Brother Wise whose snoring disturbed the meeting. It was suggested that Brother Moore supply the fraternity with sweaters, shoes, and so forth, from the Athletic Department. Brother Woodell moved that a rush party be given for the Pi Phi's. Brother Wade led the chapter in a closing yell and meeting adjourned.

PHI KAPPA PSI

Meeting opened with difficulty. Brother McDermott said negotiations were being carried on with the Kappas to have a joint fraternity meeting—but as yet no definite arrangements have been made. Brother Bill Simmons suggests that they rent a booth in Communitzis and have all meetings there. Brother Harvey Simmons, Hart, Maynard disturb the meeting by a tri-cornered argument on who rates the highest with that "Mean" girl. Brother Phillips gave a lecture on "What to Wear, and When to Wear It." Brother Snodgrass fainted on hearing the bill for the District Convention ball. Brother Higby asked that Sister Morrison be asked to sponsor for the fraternity. Meeting adjourned when all the brothers with the exception of Brother Taylor left on dates.

THETA CHI

Brother Stigall broke his gavel endeavoring to bring the meeting to order. Brother Brenneman moves that the Greek letters signifying Theta Chi be taken off the house and the full name substituted—people are getting the wrong impression. OX isn't a very good name for a fraternity. Brother Kramer read a paper on "How it Feels to Be President of the Student Body." Brother Johnson moved that he be given a vote of thanks—Motion failed. Brother Marsh was told that unless he could quit snoring he could leave the meeting. A motion was passed that Brother Roberts give the fraternity some advertising in "The Monticola". A motion was made and seconded by all the brothers in chorus that the meeting be adjourned.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

"The Knights of the Bleeding Heart" were called together for meeting since the constitution provides there shall be one every week. Brother Harrick announced that he had gotten his first bid to a woman's fraternity fight since he had been here (ten years at a minimum). Brother Steele announced that he would be here this week-end as he finds that he is unable to go to Clarksburg. The brothers broke into a gale of laughter and moved that that be marked as a red-letter day. Brother Ralston made a motion that this year they have rush-parties. Motion defeated. Meeting was adjourned to continue later at Pierce's drug store.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Meeting called to order by the usual motions, reports, or whatever is done in a meeting, were approved, passed, or what have you? A report was submitted on what T. K. E. was doing to promote scholarship at the University. Brother McElroy asked for a loving cup in commemoration of what he had done for the fraternity. Brother Daly asked for just a loving cup. Meeting died a natural death.

PHI DELTA THETA

Meeting opened with brothers congratulating themselves on being Phi Delta Thetas. Brother Thompson asked the boys of they had seen anything of the Alpha Delta Pi charter name plate. The brothers were very indignant. Ain't it awful to be accused wrongly! Brother Wiseman moved that the fraternity pay for his gasoline or quit using his car. Motion defeated. It was moved and seconded that Brothers Curtis and Love give the fraternity a little publicity in the Athenaeum. Meeting adjourned quickly, as it was eight o'clock and the boys had dates.

PI LAMBDA PHI

Meeting called to order with difficulty due to the fact that it was reported that Harry Goldsmith was going to give away cigars. It was moved and seconded that Brother Boiarsky raise the grades of all the brothers in Dr. Vickers' department. Motion passed. The chapter asked Brother Mazo to refrain from bragging about his intellectual and business achievements long enough to have a meeting. It was moved and seconded that the fraternity should move again next year—variety is the spice of life—and then it also might be said that the neighbors would appreciate it greatly. Meeting adjourned with Brother Apple being appointed to borrow a few more salt and pepper shakers from George Communtzis.

ALPHA PHI DELTA

Meeting opened with a bang. Brother Caruso asked the brothers to take steps to put an end to the report that has been going around that he is the double in both appearance and voice of the famous Victor artist by the same name. Brother Arena moved that Brother Natale furnish the brothers with nice new neckties from Goldsmith's as Easter is just two weeks away. Motion passed. Brother Conti moved that an elevator be installed in place of the long flight of steps leading up to his igloo as he found it exceedingly tiresome to mount the steps, especially at two a. m. Meeting closed by the sheriff.

DELTA KAPPA PSI

The personal combats of the brethren were quelled long enough to have a meeting. Brother Warman asked that the meeting be brief so he could look in on the Athenaeum which could not be run without him. Brother Brown came in late from the Chi Omega house where he had been helping rush a few out-of-town girls. Brother Randolph suggested that Brother Grubb come around to the house more. Brother Grubb moved that Brother Randolph go to hell. Motion carried. Brother Swindler moved that this meeting be adjourned. What is the fraternity coming to anyway?

TAU DELTA THETA

Brother Farnsworth called the meeting to order. Brother Brill moved that this meeting be short because he had a date with Helen. Brother Hanst was reproved for allowing news of other fraternities to get on the front page of the Athenaeum. Brother Farnsworth moved that a rush party be given for the Delta Gams. Brother Hanst suggested that they do a little rushing for themselves. Motion passed. Meeting adjourned as requested.

DELTA EPSILON

Meeting opened as usual with all the brothers partly sober. Brother Highland moved that the chapter buy some longer sheets and an extra length bed as he was tired of having to sleep cross wise. Motion defeated, after Brother Cosgrave figured out a way in which Brother Highland could sleep with but one bend in his body. Brother Carle suggested that the chapter build a fence between their house and the Sigma Chi house as the orthaphonic victrola of the Sigma Chi's was interfering with his study. Ain't it hell how us engineers have to work. Brother Robinson amended to read "simply burn the Sigma Chi house." Meeting adjourned with drinks around.

MU DELTA MU

Meeting opened with a slashing reduction on dues. Brother Cooper was elected to instruct the brothers on the latest and most effective necking holds. Brother Angel was requested by the chapter to restrain from telling the brothers what a good student he was at Huntington High School. Brother Seigel invited to show all the brothers the points of interest in Baltimore this summer. Meeting adjourned with all the brothers walking out when Brother Herzbrum telling how he pulled a fast one on Dean Madden.

TAU THETA RHO

Meeting called to order in the fifth degree. (All the other degrees having been lost.) Brother McElroy moved that a chapter bootlegger be appointed, as the brothers were paying high prices for low grade whiskey. Brother Sidell put his name up for the most esteemed position, but was rejected on the grounds that he could not tell drinkin' alcohol from rubbin' alcohol. Brother Coulter moved that the meeting be adjourned as he had a little bending to do.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Meeting opened eventually. Sister Brackett asked all the girls to vote for her; whereupon Sister Lehman wanted to know what she was running for now. Sisters Morrison and Warner moved that a full length mirror be put in the hall—(and later broke into the chorus, sans request, of Wonderful Me). Sister Smith asked that the pulley extending from Sister Dobb's room to Brother Hanson's room next door be oiled so that it would not disturb the whole house. The meeting adjourned with all the sisters congratulating themselves on the fine central location of their house from whence everything can be seen.

CHI OMEGA

Sister Welch beat down the table trying to get the attention of the cistern. An indignation meeting about the Kappas in general was in progress. The meeting finally came to order. It was decided that they could do the greatest good for the greatest number—so the pledging policy of this year is to be carried out next year. Sister Jolliffe moved that blanket bids be sent out to all the men's fraternities as Sister Welch is again running for office. Sister Coleman made a motion that a petition be sent to the men's organizations stating that liquor is prohibited at their dances as it is such a temptation to—Oh! well! the younger generation. The meeting adjourned. On the way out the girls congratulated one another on the fact that they held the record for fraternity pins.

PI BETA PHI

Meeting finally opened. Sister Haller moved that the chapter take a trip this summer and go visit Sister Coolidge at the White House. It was suggested by Sister Ransome that the stadium is a good place to have dates as it is so close to the house. Sister Brown begged the cinstern to buy some tickets which she was selling for one of the organizations she was supporting. Sister Hall interrupted Sister Stultz's—"Now Holt said—" with "What's to be done about the new house?" Meeting adjourned without difficulty.

DELTA GAMMA

Meeting opened considerably late as minutes had been lost. Sister Albright moved that Sam Hill (that's his name and not a byword) be accepted as a Sponsor of the fraternity. Motion failed. An anonymous letter was read asking whether Sister D'Aiuto and Sister Saffel were the Gold Dust Twins incognito (not as to color but as to inseparability). Sister Speicher and Sister Hayes, the Physical Edders, were asked to quit wrestling under the table as it was hard for the Secretary to take notes. They declared that the meeting was a bore and walked out—so did everybody else.

ALPHA DELTA PI

A thuse meeting was held to get up that old fightin' spirit to keep the scholastic cup. Sister Yost read a letter from Brother Lambert congratulating the chapter on its scholarship. Someone woke Sister Conley who had fallen asleep singing. A motion was made that Sister Mary Jolifte's photograph be sent to National headquarters to show them that at least one of the sistes is an exception to the rule that "Our girls may not get around to all the parties but we are all good girls." Sisters Jordan and Bonnell both began to make motions to adjourn. They did.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Sister McClintock called the meeting to order with great difficulty as Sisters Dower and McCamic were still arguing the time honored question of which of them really has "IT". Sister Matics moved that a committee of three be appointed to see that Sister Lakin gets dressed for all of the Pan-Hellenics this year; whereupon Sister Lakin strnggled to her feet and led the cistern in three rousing beers. It was moved and seconded and passed that Sister Matthews' picture be sent to all the newspapers in the state announcing the fact that she was, and still is, The Most Beautiful Girl in the University, and that she is a Kappa as it might help in next year's rushing (also it would show the Chi Omegas that if the Kappas could not win campus elections they could at least walk away with beauty prizes. It was moved that the porch swing be put in good repair for the annual spring "mushing." Meeting adjourned with the singing of "Kappah Kappah Gammah Shall Keep Us."

CHI DELTA PHI

Meeting opened with a hymn by Sister Weckesser. Sister Vermillion suggested that the house be put in shape to receive some Thetas who will be here to look them over. A further suggestion was made that the active chapter get on good terms with the alumnae so that a few things could be borrowed. Sister Channel moved that a petition be sent to the Phi Kaps not to make so much noise when they come in at the early hours as the girls need their beauty sleep. Sister Lynn came in twirling her Phi Bate key. Everyone stole out as one of the cistern began reading a report.

PI TAU DELTA

Meeting broke open with a fight as to which national to petition. Sister Parrack suggested that the girls should not forget to vote or some one would do it for them. Sister Smith asked why their freshmen still acted foolish. Sister Haroer asked if they were just acting. Sister Watson paddled into the room (the Ed. does not mean to infer that the meeting was all wet). Sister Jobes moved that she direct physical exercises every five minutes in order to keep the cistern awake. The motion failed because all were asleep then. The meeting died a natural death.

Just Among Us Girls

Shh! Sh! Everyone knows that those sweet young things voted "Beautiful Women" are not really beautiful at all, but merely have had the titles conferred upon them by a student body wishing to express its deep appreciation for their powers of osculation. And not content with this simply killing discrimination, the Monticola gives them soft, hazy pictures which tone down pug noses and obliterate warts. It just isn't fair, and we girls should squawk.

Miss Myrtle Goosebalm of the Kappa Kappa Gamma girls, advises every Lorelei to put a bit of lipstick just inside the nose. Then when Theodore declares his love for the fifth time, one can take a deep breath and dialate the nostrils. Decidedly fetching! Gives one that thoroughbred appearance.

We girls wear silk hose every blessed day, and sit on the front row when we have a class under Prof. ———, who spouts knowledge in room No. ———, ——floor of Woodburn Hall, and we always pass the course. Isn't it sweet of him?

The Stadium Press Box, so far as we girls are concerned is distinctly a thing of the past. Those crooks of really discriminating tastes will insist always on being taken to Chemistry Hall Steps.

Isn't Miss Rosella Twindum Greaseheimer, our Pi Beta Phi pledge from Flatwoods, W. Va., the trickiest little thing? So very comopolitan. She shops exclusively with Madame Bechoof (106¾ East Jones St., Morgantown) who, we understand, buys from a man in Cameron, W. Va., who orders the daintiest thing direct from a well known New York department store which sends a buyer to Paris almost every spring. Rosella always knows what to say and when to say it, too. You should have heard the crowd in the Dixie Destaurant roar last night when Miss Greaseheimer, seated at one of the "tables tor ladies" baffled the waitress by asking for hors d'ouvres! Too bad Rosella Twindum has to leave us—it is generally understood that she is studying a correspondence course under Arthur Muray and that it is only a question of time until she will take also ballet parts in just lots of operas produced at the New York Metropolitan.

Page the nine Muses and inform them that we have found the tenth! This sweet singer is none other than Miss Hattie Doebuck of the Alpha Xi Delta girls. She writes the most touching things for the Scribbler. Remember the one called "Psychie's Dream"—it begins something like this, "To thee, O my Lover, would I give my life, yea, e'en my soul! Or the one entitled, "Flaming Love" which opens with, "'Twas not love, albeit you named it so, 'twas just the primitive lust." Yes, Gertrude, we Alpha Xi Deltas certainely are proud of Hattie.

Hey! Hey! May we quote Miss Della Hoffboggs, the siren of Chi Amega house as saying the attributes of her undeniable appeal to the cleft in her chin, this dainty little indentation being the result of the skillful application of a clothespin each night.
